

Designing your website assignment

Overview:

You have been given an account at ddhspages.net and today you will be logging into your account for the first time. We will be using this site throughout the remainder of the semester.

Objective:

Your assignment is to create a website about yourself. This will be an ongoing assignment for the entire semester, and will be part of your final project. The focus of this website will be the three essential questions of PACE I: Who am I? What do I want? & How do I get it?

Day One: March 2, 2009

Today you will be creating five pages on your site. The four pages you are being asked to create today are the following:

- Introduction Page
 - Your Name
 - A quote or quotes that represent who you are
 - A picture that represents who you are
 - A short description of yourself, we often call this a bio
- Values Page
 - Identify 3 to 5 values that are important in your life
 - Find and insert a picture for each of your values
 - Write a 5 to 10 sentence explanation of your values
- Passions Page
 - Identify 3 to 5 passions that you have
 - Find and insert a picture for each of your passions
 - Write a 5 to 10 sentence explanation of your passions
- Skills Page
 - Identify 5 to 10 skills that you will need to reach your dreams & goals
 - Find and insert 5-10 images that represent the skills you chose
 - Write a 5 to 10 sentence explanation of your skills
- Example profile page
 - Choose one of the people we have analyzed this semester: Fabio Rosa, Homer Hickam, John Hickam, Inderjit Kurahna, or Dr. V, David Green
 - Give examples of the person's values, passions, and skills
 - Find a picture of the person and insert it into your page
