DAVID DOUGLAS HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS BASKETBALL CAMP

JUNE 16, 17, 18—2009
At Alice Ott Middle School

Camp Philosophy

The Scots Girls Basketball Camp is a three-day basketball experience for girls who will be in the third grade through the tenth grade. Our dedicated staff of high school players and coaches have created a fun learning environment that stresses goals and skill improvement. Within the scope of the camp our goals are to:

- Provide developmentally appropriate basic and advanced basketball skills.
- Teach teamwork and sportsmanship
- Encourage personal character growth
- Instill positive attitudes and work ethic
- Improve self-esteem and confidence
- Provide quality role models

Camp Staff:

Bill Blevins—Head Coach

Bill has been coaching high school girls basketball for over ten years. This will be his fourth year as head coach for the Scots.

Mike Costello—Varsity Assistant Coach

Mike has coached for four seasons as a varsity assistant at DDHS.

Sean Betker—Junior Varsity Coach

Sean has coached the JV for the past four seasons at DDHS

Felisha Brewer—Freshman Coach

Felisha just completed her first year coaching at DDHS. She brings great enthusiasm to the game.
